At Home.

A novel and amusing feature of the "at home" given by Mrs. Causten Browne, Jr., on Monday evening was the opportunity given the gentlemen to show their aptitude in the art of entertaining. Instead of the dainty fingers we are wont to associate as moving deftly among the teacups and the pretty girl behind the punch bowl, Mr. Schramm poured coffee and three manly forms presided at the punch bowl.

Mr. George L. Nye, Mr. S. V. Sheip and Mr. C. F. Adams. Assisting in the dining room were Mr. E. S. Ferry, Mr. W. Montague Ferry, Mr. W. C. Shoup, Mr. George Lawrence, Mr. E. O. Howard. The table was prettily decorated in red and white. A magnificent bunch of salvia adorned the center and from the chandelier immediately above hung a cluster of white chrysanthemums. The table was lighted with red candles. The informality of the evening made it one of pure enjoyment.

The invited guests were Governor and Mrs. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Flagg, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Ferry, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Ferry, Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Alta Club Dinner.

The dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Sharp at the Alta club on Thursday evening, complimentary to Mrs. Baxter, was one of the most elaborate of the season. Dozens of American Beauties enhanced the beauty of the dinner service, and with cut glass, choice fruits and ferns, presented a striking picture.

Besides the guest of honor there were present Mr. and Mrs. Burns Macdonald, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Walker, Mrs. Harkness, Miss Salisbury, Miss Lowe, Miss Elaine, Miss Nason, Miss Adelaide Nason, Miss Ora Harkness, Miss Dooly, Miss Pope, Messrs. Charles Richardson, Max Smith, J. Walcott Thompson, George Y. Wallace, Jr., Critchlow, Pendergast, Faber, Benner, E. Smith, E. B. Wicks.

For Major and Mrs. Downey.

On Monday evening an elaborately appointed dinner was given at the Alta club by Mr. and Mrs. George Y. Wallace complimentary to Major and Mrs. Downey and their guests. The table was spread in the gold room and was replete with cut glass and beautiful flowers. The centerpiece was of yellow chrysanthemums, banked with violets and smilax. At each cover was a bouquet of violets tied with white ribbon. The place cards were ornamented with hand painted violets. They marked the places occupied by Major and Mrs. Downey, Mrs. McClintock, Mrs. Brooks, Mrs. Faber, Mr. Faber, Judge and Mrs. Harkness, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. V. Rice, Miss Crawford, Mr. T. R. Jones, Mr. George Y. Wallace, Jr.

At Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dale entertained at dinner on Monday evening. The table presented a striking appearance in an artistic arrangement of white ruffled chrysanthemums and maidenhair fern. Large green bows and shaded candles in the same soft colors added to the general effect. Covers were laid for nine. Around the table were seated, besides the host and hostess, Judge and Mrs. H. P. Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. King, Mrs. P. V. Dunyon, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Stephens.

Musical.

One of the most delightful evenings of the week was enjoyed on Friday, when Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Nelden entertained at a musicale. The programme was spoken of as affording unusual pleasure and was participated in by such well known local artists as Mrs. Somers-Cocks, Mrs. Osborne, Miss Damon and Professor Schettler. A choice number was the charming original selection played by Mr. Woodmansee, Mr. Ralph Nelden rendered a beautiful violin solo. A delicious and dainty menu was served at the close of the programme.

The following lovers of music were present: Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Vollmer, Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Keith, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Weir, Dr. and Mrs. Clarence

T. Brown, Dr. Paden, Mr. Woodmansee, Mr. and Mrs. Taggart, Mrs. Overfield, Mr. Chauncey Overfield, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Critchlow, Mr. and Mrs. Knight, Mrs. Frank Kimball, Professor and Mrs. Schettler, Mrs. Osborne, Miss Damon, Mrs. Cocks, Mr. and Mrs. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Peabody, Mr. and Mrs. Graham Putnam, Mr. and Mrs. Ledyard Bailey, Mrs. Egbert Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Kimball, Mrs. Kimball, Mrs. Woodruff, Mrs. John Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Chisholm, Mr. and Mrs. Cross.

Luncheon.

Among the beautiful functions of the week was the luncheon on Tuesday given by Mrs. S. H. Babcock. A pretty centerpiece of violets and maidenhair fern and a little bunch of violets at each plate formed the table decorations. The guests were Mrs. Harkness, Mrs. G. F. Holman, Mrs. Edwin F. Holmes, Mrs. W. V. Rice, Mrs. George Y. Wallace, Mrs. J. D. Thompson, Mrs. James A. Miner.

Mrs. W. G. Sharp's Luncheon.

Graceful American Beauties formed the decoration at a beautiful luncheon given on Friday by Mrs. W. G. Sharp. The guests of honor were Mrs. G. M. Downey, Mrs. McClintock and Mrs. Brooks. The menu was choice and elaborate. Covers were laid for ten.

Mrs. Hoyt Sherman Entertains.

Mrs. McClintock and Mrs. Brooks were guests of honor on Thursday at a card party given by Mrs. Hoyt Sherman. A luxuriance of varicolored chrysanthemums and roses added beauty and fragrance to the rooms. The tables and scores of pretty Venetian scenes. Prizes at sixty-three were won by Mrs. Harkness and Mrs. Bancroft. Mrs. McClintock and Mrs. Brooks received the guest prizes. Mrs. Sherman was assisted in entertaining by Miss Rachel Baldwin and the
